

A good job is not hardie to find.

Become part of the James Hardie Europe GmbH success story. Your Partner in Growth.

We are the global market leader in fiber gypsum and fiber cement solutions with the fermacell® and James Hardie brands. With our ground-breaking innovations we change the way Europe builds. We are setting new standards in areas such as lean manufacturing, demand creation and implementing our push-pull strategy. Every day, our fantastic team combines the creative spirit of a start-up with the power of a global market leader.

To strengthen our team, we are looking for a full-time employment for the South West and Southern East regions.

Technical Site Services Representative (m/f/d)

Your tasks

- Work with area sales managers to provide timely updates on upcoming projects and ensure maximum engagement for all parties involved
- Provide pre- and post-sales technical support to the fibre cement Residential sales team as required.
 - Prestart meetings, detailing and checking of drawings
 - Toolbox talks and installation training, on-site and at our training facility
 - Offer technical support during the build programme
- Site audits - Carry out regular install audit and report back to developer's head office
- Installation and construction of customer displays to help promote our products with our dealer network
- Investigate product and installation failures. Reporting back to the business based on your findings
- Assist the technical team with product testing and development to improve and grow our offering to the market
- Establish and maintain strategic partnerships with all key decision makers and contacts in the facade construction industry, with a focus on building a portfolio of contractors and developers working in this segment
- Maintaining CRM system (salesforce) for records and tracking

You are...

- smart? You have several years of experience in the construction industry, ideally with a network in the facade industry.
- driven? Standing still is a foreign word for you. You enjoy working in fast-paced environments. Additionally, you are proactive, agile, focused and very reactive. You've got a highly motivated mindset as well as the ability to set the right priorities quickly – and also adjust them.
- real? You have strong interpersonal communication skills with the ability to cooperate well with others to effectively coordinate activities and accomplish goals – always in a team-oriented and collaborative way. Commitment to the corporate culture, vision, mission and values are natural for you.

What we offer

- A very collegial atmosphere in a dynamic environment and eager team.
- Continuous, individual development opportunities.
- Attractive salary package and possibilities to work hybrid.
- Company car + fuel card.
- iPhone & Dell laptop

Curious?

Then become part of James Hardie. We are only strong together as a team. Diverse people drive innovation and growth. We are interested in what people think, regardless of culture, background, or personal belief. We are looking forward to getting in touch with you.
